Press Release

NATIONAL INTERSTATE INSURANCE COMPANY FINALISTS FOR CAPTIVE INDUSTRY AWARDS

Richfield, Ohio – July 19, 2017– National Interstate Insurance Company (“National Interstate”) made the short list of nominees in two categories for Captive Review’s 2017 U.S. Captive Awards: Captive Management–Group Captives and New Captive Formation, a new award for 2017.

The New Captive Formation nomination recognizes National Interstate’s MEDIC® Captive Insurance Program, created in July 2015. In launching the MEDIC Program, National Interstate created an opportunity to offer best-in-class ambulance operators a unique insurance solution.

The nomination for Captive Management-Group Captives observes National Interstate’s 20+ year history as an industry-leading transportation insurer providing unique risk transfer programs and services.

“We are proud to be a leading provider of alternative risk transfer solutions to the transportation industry and honored to be recognized by Captive Review,” said Tony Mercurio, President & CEO of National Interstate. “We offer over a dozen group captive programs as well as alternative risk transfer risk solutions for individual insureds and continually work with our customers and business partners to address their ever changing insurance needs.”

For more information on National Interstate’s alternative risk transfer programs, please contact Chris Mikolay, Vice President of National Accounts at 800-929-1500 x1407 or chris.mikolay@natl.com.
